- Established for more than twenty years, the company has supplied over 1000 buildings to private clients, schools, holiday parks, local authorities, charities and public bodies. Just like our buildings, we're here to stay, with warranties and maintenance programmes you can rely on.
- Norwegian Log designs, supplies and erects solid log buildings for all sorts of purposes: home offices and granny annexes, holiday homes, log houses, swimming pools and larger commercial buildings.

THE HALLMARKS OF QUALITY

- The hallmarks of Norwegian Log buildings are their attractiveness, durability and high performance, which set the standards for the whole industry.
- The secret of this quality lies in Norway's traditional log construction methods, which have been used for at least 1000 years to hold the country's severe climate at bay.

LARGE-SCALE BUILDINGS AND LEISURE DEVELOPMENTS

- Norwegian Log's larger buildings and its position as a leading supplier to major leisure developments are clear evidence of the company's expertise, capacity and reliability.

AWARD-WINNING LARGER BUILDINGS

- Norwegian Log's swimming pool for Lakeside School was awarded a prestigious Swimming Pool & Allied Trades Association Premier Award. Funding for several major projects was provided by the National Lottery following rigorous analyses of the buildings' performance and economic advantages. Norwegian Log also has long experience of working with charities, and is sympathetic to their special problems.

MAJOR LEISURE DEVELOPMENTS

■ Norwegian Log has been chosen to supply buildings for a number of major leisure developments designed for discerning owners and visitors. Projects include one with more than 80 solid log two-storey houses and another with over 60 luxurious holiday homes. Both developments are still expanding, and Norwegian Log is pleased to have been selected to supply further buildings.

EXCLUSIVE NORWEGIAN SUPPLIERS

- Norwegian Log has exclusive rights in the British Isles to products from Kjeldstad, Norway's leading log building manufacturer. Now in its third generation of family ownership, this modern, highly computerised business has the most sophisticated sawmills in Norway and is a leading supplier to the construction industry, which ensures consistent quality and availability.

A RENEWABLE NATURAL MATERIAL

- Norwegian Log insists on the responsible use of natural resources. All logging is accompanied by a comprehensive replanting programme, as required by the Norwegian government. No timber is taken from tropical rain forests or other endangered habitats.

COMPREHENSIVE SERVICE FROM PLANNING TO MAINTENANCE

■ Norwegian Log offers a full design and technical advice service, and will prepare sketch plans and costings for specific projects.

The company's detailed knowledge of Planning and Building Regulations can help you make the most of your site and budget.

Norwegian Log's transportable buildings, for example, can often be much more attractive and substantial replacements for caravans.
